Dr. Alberto Rivera-- Ex-Jesuit Priest, 1935-1996

I have come to understand that there are those in the 'Christian' community who really are false brethren. How do I know? ECUMENISM! It is the death knell to Christianity. Dr. Rivera was unshakeable about his revelations of Rome. This ex-Jesuit priest revealed that the Vatican is behind the Ecumenical Movement and the amalgamation of all faiths into a unified whole. This is the whore of John's Apocalypse.

In spite of his earthly departure, Dr. Alberto Rivera will continue to be a lightning rod of Roman Catholic sentiment; both in and out of the Vatican.

If you want to know the position of any Protestant minister regarding their stand on Rome, ask them about Brother Rivera. See what their reaction is. Have they read his life story? Or are they just regurgitating what the vast majority of pop-Christianity clergy believe? With his love for the lost Roman Catholic and a desire to expose Rome for its hypocrisy, you either respect this soldier of the cross or you despise him. You are either for or against him! You might be surprised how many ministers have already sold out to Rome and have been reigned in through ecumenical propaganda.

A Lone Voice in the Wilderness

Some may question the legitimacy of this work because I chose to quote an ex-Catholic. At one time Dr. Rivera was a Jesuit in the army of the Pope; a servant, with no mind of his own. Like all Jesuits he served the Black Pope—the Jesuit General.

I say to those schools and seminaries that may discredit this book because of Rivera's citations, 'Go ahead and continue in your spiritual blindness and pagan thinking.' I know when I came across these works of Rivera I was completely ignorant of what the Vatican believed. I was 'in the dark' when it came to their sinister involvement in American history and the Protestant church in this country.

Alberto Rivera's conversion from Roman Catholicism, a Jesuit priest no less, will continue to impact the 20th and 21st Centuries, and beyond if the Lord tarries, for the Kingdom of Christ.

In his life and in his death, Dr. Rivera continues to be a tool God has used to call forth the wheat from the chaff. To those who have read his story and how it has changed their view about the Catholic Church, I and many others, owe Dr. Rivera an eternal debt of gratitude. To those ignorant of the facts and those who want to appease the enemies at all cost, and there are many, my prayer is that you will see the light.

Although his untimely death at the age of 61, in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, in May of 1997 was not a shock to those that loved him, Dr. Rivera and his resolute incriminations against the Holy See were some of the most insightful, outspoken proofs yet against the rider on the white horse mentioned in Revelation 6:2.¹

¹ Revelation 6:2—And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

Even though his death certificate states he died of colon cancer, many believe his demise was carefully scripted and hastened by a substance that caused his cancer but left no indication of foul play. Having endured and survived numerous attempts on his life, Alberto finally succumbed to Rome's dogged determination to silently and discreetly waste his life in the name of 'Christianity' and the Roman Catholic Church. Because of his unique position within Rome, Brother Rivera had access to clandestine historical documents, both ancient and contemporary.

His attention to church events and recall of post-Apostolic history and those significant details as they really happened, enabled him to draw us a picture of history few ever imagined. His real life encounters would captivate the attention of even the most uninterested student of history.

Above all other considerations must the motive for Dr. Rivera's zeal for Christ be examined? He had a love for Roman Catholics. He also had a burning passion to tell others who would listen, about the diabolical antichrist system of Rome.

Like a modern day Saul of Tarsus, Dr. Rivera was a persecutor and destroyer of The Church of Jesus Christ. Rivera came to faith in Christ in 1965, at the age of 30. All this came to pass after telling a packed stadium of Catholic clergy and laity in Guatemala that Rome was a system of death. What a stark contrast to that of South American evangelist/ecumenist Luis Palau.

Prior to his defection from Rome, Alberto said while his life was ebbing, confined to an iron lung, the words of John 8:31, 32 flooded his soul. This was the lowest point in his life. In that moment darkness gave way to the glorious light of Christ; he was forgiven, restored, saved, healed, and finally free from Rome at last.

Who's Doing The Lying?

“It is very interesting that the Catholic Church would accuse Dr. Rivera of lying, for when it comes to telling outright falsehoods, Rome leads the field. How much trust can we put in Rome's denials of Rivera? Not one bit, especially in view of the following, which comes from Lesson 17 - The Love and Service of Man from The Catholic Religion published by The Catholic Enquiry Centre, Maroubra, N.S.W. 1979. It says:

‘It is lawful sometimes to conceal the truth or part of it. There are occasions when it would be harmful to oneself or others to tell the whole truth. It is not sinful to make ambiguous statements or make mental reservations on certain issues as when a person is bound by secrecy, or is questioned by one who has no right to certain information.’

So Rome says it's permissible for them to lie when it best serves their purposes, yet they condemn Rivera for being a liar. Besides being hypocritical, their position makes a mockery of scripture:

‘ . . . all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.’ Revelation 21: 8

‘Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord: but they that deal truly are his delight.’ Proverbs 12: 22

‘These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him: a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,’ Proverbs 6: 16,17

In light of Rome's, statement about lying, I ask again - how much can we trust their claims about Rivera? Very simple. Not one bit.

Proof that the Catholic Church does indeed believe that it is permissible to "conceal the truth" can be found in their numerous false and unbiblical doctrines. Here are just a few:

1. That Mary is a Mediatrix between God and men ... a lie.
(I Timothy 2:5)
2. That Mary, the mother of Jesus, was immaculately conceived ... a lie.
(Romans 3:23)
3. That the priest can forgive sins ... a lie.
(I John 1:9)
4. That Peter was the first Pope ... a lie.
(Acts 10:25,26)
5. That the Pope is infallible ... a lie.
(Romans 3:23)
6. That money paid into its coffers can help souls after death ... a lie.
(Hebrews 9:27)
7. That salvation is to be found in her alone ... a lie.
(John 14:6)
8. That priests can turn a biscuit into the living Christ ... a lie.
(Hebrews 10:10, 12)
9. That idol worship (i. e. crucifixes, rosary beads, statues, saints, etc.) is right ... a lie.
(Exodus 20:4-5)
10. That "holy water" can perform miracles ... a lie.
(e.g., STATE AFFAIR item - Jan., 1986)
11. That the Catholic Church is poor ... a lie.
(Read The Vatican Billions, by Avro Manhattan.)
12. That she saved thousands of Jews in Rome during Nazi occupation.... a lie. (Read the truth on page 29 of the book The Vatican Papers).

Now, after considering these few Rome-inspired lies (many more could be given), can any person with a sound mind give a scrap of credence to anything this evil system might say about men like Alberto Rivera? Of course not!

In fact, we would go so far as to say that if Rome agreed with Rivera in all that he says, then we would be highly skeptical of the man ourselves. Rome's denunciations of him only further establish the truth of what he says.”
