

A detailed black and white engraving by Gustave Dore depicting the Transfiguration of Jesus Christ. Jesus is shown in the center, ascending into a bright, glowing light, surrounded by a halo of rays. He is flanked by two figures, likely Moses and Elijah, who are also glowing and appear to be in conversation with him. Below, three figures in robes are shown in various states of awe and prayer, looking up at the divine light. The background is dark and atmospheric, with clouds and a sense of a high, celestial realm.

Jesus Christ speaking:
"...All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."
--Matthew 28:18

VI. There is no other head of the Church but the Lord Jesus Christ. Nor can the Pope of Rome, in any sense, be head thereof; but is that Antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalts himself, in the Church, against Christ and all that is called God.
